Understanding the CFCAM Designation

The CFCAM is a certification specifically tailored for community association managers operating within Florida. It is designed to demonstrate a manager's expertise, professionalism, and dedication to upholding high standards in managing homeowners' associations (HOAs), condominium associations, and other community organizations.

The certification is administered by the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR), which oversees licensing and regulation of community association managers in the state. Unlike general property management licenses, CFCAM emphasizes the unique legal, financial, and operational aspects of community associations.

Holding a CFCAM indicates that a manager has met rigorous educational, experience, and ethical standards. It assures community boards and homeowners that their manager:

- Understands Florida's specific statutes governing community associations, particularly Chapter 718 (Condominiums), Chapter 719 (Cooperatives), and Chapter 720 (HOAs).
- Is committed to ongoing professional development.
- Adheres to a strict code of ethics.

This credential positions managers as trusted professionals capable of navigating Florida's complex regulatory environment, handling disputes, and maintaining the integrity of the community.
